Researcher in Networks and Innovation Systems (Code 0219_IIBC)

The University of Talca has three research positions to be filled for its Institute of Innovation (IIBC).

Those interested will send their application to the email romina.valdes@utalca.cl, with a copy to cegomez@utalca.cl, indicating the following information:

- Curriculum vitae, including scientific articles and projects,
- Copy of degree certificates
- Report with the qualifications of the postgraduate courses
- Reference letter
- Motivation letter.

The application period expires on December 20, 2019.

Specific requirements:

- Degree in social sciences, engineering, applied sciences, business, management, economics or related areas.
- Doctorate degree in the field of innovation studies, innovation management, engineering, applied sciences, sociology or related areas.
- At least 5 scientific articles in indexed journals WoS in the area of study of the position in the last 5 years.
- Proven experience in leading research and innovation projects in the last 5 years
- Language skills: fluent spoken and written English and Spanish, accredited by the necessary certificates

Complete information at http://www.llamadoconcurso.utalca.cl and http://institutodeinnovacion.utalca.cl/